

The Chicago Chapter and CIOA present:
Learning & Teaching Organ Remotely
Saturday, January 27, 2018 10AM CST

- Learn how new technology can make high quality organ instruction accessible to students and teachers everywhere.
- Observe how teachers and students interact remotely and what equipment and setup is necessary to make this mode of instruction effective and rewarding.
- Attend this free workshop in person (77 W. Washington St., Chicago, IL) or watch on the Chicago Chapter's Facebook page: @AGOChicago.

Please email register@cioa.global by January 23 to register and indicate whether you will attend in person or watch online.
